STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 1903. 8 A M

NO. 32

JUDGE J. E. ROBBINS, of Mayfield.

Judge Robbins, who was appointed by Governor Beckham to try Caleb Powers, charged with the assassination of Gov. Goebel, is a lawyer of excellent standing. He was circuit judge of his district and made a most creditable record for the appellate judgeship, being defeated by a small plurality. He has fixed Monday, Aug. 3, as the date to begin the trial.

Hudson's String Starts Out.

The most valuable collection of trotters and pacers ever shipped in one ear left Lexington over the L. & N. for Columbus, O., where the wonderful campaigning stable of Scott Hudson started on its itinerary for the season of 1903. Included among the horses were the marvelous blind stallion Rhythmic, 2:05, whose campaign of last year was the feature of the season's work; Twinkle, 2:05, second best pacer of last season only to the unbeaten Direct Hit; Chase, 2:07, considered by every astute horseman capable of a mile in 2:45; Doctor Madara, probably the greatest green pacer in America; Tertimin, another green pacer, that showed miles in 2:34 last year; Jay McGregor, Hudson's dependence for the M. and M. at Detroit in July; Treganthe, another green trotter that will return home this fall with a record better than 2:10, and others of like caliber.

While the Grand Circuit will not open until the week of the Detroit meeting, Hudson will make his first start at Columbus a week earlier and go to the Ohio track to put the finishing touches on his charges before the time of battle, for the campaign ahead of him is a hard one and the itinerary is long, commencing at Detroit and thence eastward by way of Cleveland, Buffalo, Brighton Beach, Boston, Providence, Hartford and New York, with two weeks racing at Columbus and Cincinnati in September before Lexington is reached in October. Then a week at Memphis and the season is at an end.

Hudson's phenomenal success of last year, when with James Y. Gascumb as a partner he won more money with his stable than any other reinman, has given the Kentucky driver a marked prestige in the trotting horse world and the workings of his horse this spring have been closely followed by every turf journal in the country. In fact, Hudson has assumed a position in his chosen vocation which any man might well envy and his career this year will be noted with renewed interest. Accompanying the stable are Assistant Trainers George Seal and Walter Traynor together with the usual equipment of blacksmiths, groomers and cooks.—Lexington Democrat.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantities constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles completely cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by all druggists. Trial bottles free, regular sizes 50c and $1.

Worst Of All Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered." TESTIMONY shows that one of the get-rich-quick companies of New York made a net earning of $400,000 in very short order, and that this good faith money of the people was divided between two men. This is the sort of concern that the dismissed officials of the postoffice department were in the habit of allowing to continue to use the mails in order that their own "actuarial" might supplement the reports of the inspectors, after the latter had recommended immediate issuance of fraud orders.

Is it possible that all the "greenies" live in the First district? This one at least does. J. E. Sullivan, of Livingston county, started to Paducah on an Illinois Central train and it was his first trip on the cars. When the porter shouted "All off for Paducah," he took him at his word and jumped off the platform, not knowing the train was going to stop, and was badly hurt. One arm was broken and his head was mashed, but he will probably recover.

WITHIN the last 10 years the Goddess of Liberty which stands on the dome of the Capitol at Washington has been struck by lightning over a 100 times. Workmen who have been washing the bronze statue for the first time in a decade have discovered many marks made by the lightning. The gold and aluminum-tipped prongs of the crown of the Goddess, which were expected to serve as lightning rods, have been melted off.

HARK from the tomb, there comes a mournful sound! Capt. W. J. Stone, several times elected to Congress by the democrats and a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor in 1899, which he failed to get and went over to the enemy, turns over in his grave to say that the democratic party is in bad shape and that the republicans have a fine chance to win this year. The wish, of course, is father to the thought.

THE Danville Advocate quotes Hon. R. C. Warren, of this place, as saying: "I shall be, and am a candidate for Congress and shall be until that question is settled. You may say with emphasis." This is good news to that gentleman's legions of friends all over the eighth district. Mr. Warren would make a capital congressman and his friends will spare no energy in trying to make him one.

THE Elk edition of the Lexington Democrat was a highly creditable one. Besides a general write-up of the order in session at Lexington, it contained good half-tones of the more prominent Elks in attendance and the names of them all. The news department was up to the standard of its usual excellence, while the editorial columns were as brilliant as they always are.

THIS AND THAT.

Miss Ida Godbey is dead at Perryville.

Leading citizens of Jackson ask that the troops be kept at that place for some time to come.

A New York woman has been pardoned from Sing Sing, after spending 27 years behind the bars for murder.

The jury in the case of Jett and White for killing J. B. Maroon at Jackson, is thought to be hopelessly hung.

The court of appeals reversed the embitterment case of Dr. A. P. Taylor, of Lexington, and ordered it remanded for new trial.

The mills and elevator of the Arkansas City Milling Co., at Arkansas City, Kas., were destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of $100,000.

Near Grantville, W. Va., Mrs. Alex Johnson railed a saloon and destroyed its stock of liquors. The building afterward was demolished with dynamite.

During the argument in the Jett-White case at Jackson the lie was passed between B. F. French and Judge Blanton, opposing attorneys, but Judge French prevented trouble.

The Court of Appeals, in reversing a decision of the Green Circuit Court, held that the Cumberland and Ohio railroad bonds issued by Green county in 1869 were not valid, the conditions not having been complied with in issuing the bonds.

James T. Metcalf, for many years superintendent of the money order system in the postoffice department at Washington, was summarily dismissed by Postmaster General Payne for awarding contracts for government printing to a firm employing his son and whose bid exceeded that of a responsible competitor by $15,000.

POLITICAL.

T. J. Richardson has been appointed postmaster at Big Hill, Madison county.

Henry Greene, of Duluth, Minn., was appointed United States Civil Service Commissioner to succeed Mr. Gardfield. Gov. Bailey, of Kansas, has called a special session of the Legislature to relieve the devastated sections of the State.

A prominent Warren county Republican says a scheme is on foot to stampede the Republican State convention for W. O. Bradley.

Democrats in the Foxtown precinct of Madison county called on Judge W. B. Smith, through a card in the Richmond Register, to become a candidate for Congress in the Eighth district.

James Hancock, of Adair, who was a republican candidate for circuit judge in the 29th district, the primary to be held August 1, has withdrawn. The two remaining candidates are H. C. Baker, of Adair, and George H. Miller, of Monroe.

On account of the illness of Judge Thomas B. Paynter, of the court of appeals, the opinion of the court in the injunction suit of the democratic committee of Louisville against Ailie Young will not be handed down until later in the week.

R. C. Warren, of Stanford, is receiving much praise for the way he pushes business along when acting as special judge. Hon. Harvey Helm, of Stanford, is considered good timber for Congress from the Eighth district.—Somerset Journal.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

B. G. Vaught sold his 100-acre farm near Somerset to C. A. Sussner for $1,500.

Africander won the Suburban Handicap in a drive by a neck from Herbert, with Hunter Balde, third.

E. H. Beazley & Co. will receive a car-load of draft mares and geldings from Illinois to-day, which they will sell cheap. See them.

The record price for a hoghead of cigarette tobacco of the 1902 crop was made at the Planters' warehouse in Louisville when $29 was paid by the American Tobacco Company for a hoghead of bright leaf.

The highest price for the present sale of yearlings from J. B. Haggin's Rancho del Paso, being conducted at Sheepshead Bay, was reached when J. Kneate paid $15,000 for a bay colt by Imp Star Ruby—Linda Vista. P. Lorrillard paid $14,000 for a son of Imp Goldfinch—Lucania.

The officers of the Central Kentucky Trouting Horse Breeders Association, with headquarters at Danville, are J. T. Hugueny, president; J. G. Cecil, vice president; C. T. Worthington, secretary, and G. A. McRoberts, treasurer; Judge John W. Hughes and R. E. Goddard, of Mercer county; Dave and Frank Logan, of Boyle county, and John A. Wood, of Garrard county, are the directors.

Driven To Desperation.

Living at an out of the way place, remote from civilization, a family is often driven to desperation in a case of accident, resulting in Burns, Cuts, Wounds, Ulcers, etc. Lay in a supply of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's the best on earth. 25c. at all drug stores.

The merry song of the reeling bar-vestor and the whistle of the festive thresher are rendering daily to the West End farmers very interesting duets.

Among the latest things out is Dr. Barker's mustache, and Judge Josh Swope's announcing his candidacy for the office of judge of the Lincoln county court.

Mrs. Mary Hommel and daughter, guests of Mrs. W. C. Greenlog, will visit Mrs. George Walden, of Danville, and from there will return to Hamilton College, Lexington.

Yesterday's ball game at Pine Bluff, between Vicksburg and Pine Bluff, resulted in a score of 4 to 1 in favor of Vicksburg. Camnitz in the box allowed only two strikes and struck out nine men.

Mrs. W. C. Greenlog gave a delightful party last night in honor of Misses Martha Hommel, of Lexington, and Beattie Talbot, of Midway. Delightful refreshments were served and greatly enjoyed by the large number of invited guests.

A very interesting program, requiring 1 1/2 hours to render, was given at the Christian church Sunday night to a very large audience by the children of the mission band. Marches, drills, songs and recitations, alternately arranged and superbly rendered, under the able management of Miss Lena Yowell and Miss Angie Carpenter, to whom all praise is due for the complete success of this band of little missionary entertainers.

We are glad to record the latest additions to our ever increasing population and may their shadows never grow less. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Newton a 10-lb hotel clerk—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baughman a 10-lb farmer boy, the second one. Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Pipes a 9-lb boy and their first. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Badget a 9-lb girl. Mr. and Mrs. Will McIntosh a girl with only one arm, and no stump to indicate where this left arm should be.

The Lincoln County Medical Society met here Tuesday and was well attended. Interesting papers were read by Drs. Keld, Cook and Barker. The next meeting will be held at Crab Orchard on Tuesday, August 2nd. Among those who attended here were Drs. Cook, Carpenter, Keld and Brown, of Stanford; Pitman, of Boyle; Aeton, of Kingsville; Pipes, of McCreland, and Beeler and Wesley, of Casey county, together with all four of our local members of the society.

CAMPBELLSBURG.

That your old correspondent may still have the pleasure of perusing the columns of the I. J., I write you a few lines from this part of Kentucky with the request that you forward the paper to us at this place during our stay of a few weeks.

We regret to find crops of all kinds very late in this section. Rain has been very frequent and heavy, with numerous local electrical storms, followed by cold, bleak winds, with frosts in many places. Fruit of all kinds is virtually a failure and gardens very poor. Even the earliest chickens, of which the Kentucky housewife always boasts, is far from being ripe. The blackberry crop promises a good yield. Henry county is noted for its fine White Burley tobacco, but this is unusually late. Campbellsburg marks the spot where the Missionary and old side Baptist churches divided.

The L. & N. depot recently burned here, is to be replaced by a very handsome structure. The material for building is now upon the ground.

A new postoffice is almost completed. Three rural routes have been established here, making long circuits and giving first class satisfaction. The air line is almost darkened by telephone wires, both local and long distance. The exchange here is supervised by one of Lincoln county's brightest girls. She has won the hearts of all by her kindness, promptness and efficiency.

The district convention of the C. W. B. M. is to be held here Saturday. The president of the convention is the wife of Hon. W. P. Thorne, and is to make an address upon the occasion.

A party of 75 will make a jolly excursion to Mammoth Cave in a few days.

THE opening ball at Crab Orchard Springs occurs this evening and it promises to be a most brilliant as well as a most delightful affair. Belles and beaux from many towns will be present and tripping of the light fantastic will last until far into the early morning.

THE prohibition election in the Crab Orchard magisterial district next Tuesday has not created a great deal of interest so far. The whiskey men are said to be doing little or nothing, while the prohibitionists are rather inactive. The impression prevails that the "drys" will win.

UNDER a double column half tone of Hon. Harvey Hein, of this place, the Danville News says: He was born in Danville, where he has lots of kinsfolk and a host of warm friends, who will rally with gladness to his banner in the coming fight for the democratic nomination. He is young, bright, energetic and it would be well to give him the nomination. He has means and can make a strong and vigorous campaign and besides he is an orator of the first water.

AT the suggestion of Judge M. C. Sautley, a paper was circulated here Tuesday and $50 secured in a few moments for Capt. B. J. Ewen, the Jackson witness who dared to tell the truth. This paper will gladly forward to Capt. Ewen any money left at this office for him. A dollar or so from our countrymen, who would not miss the amount, would go toward helping a good man in distress, as well as let the outside world know what Lincoln county thinks of such high-handed methods as are being resorted to in the feud-ridden county of Breathitt.

THE case of Garrard county against Ginn & Co., of Boston, here on change of venue, was begun yesterday afternoon. The common school law provides that before the text books of any publisher can be adopted in any county, that a $10,000 bond must be given to the effect that the books will not be sold higher in the county adopting than elsewhere. The Garrard county superintendent brought suit on the bond on the ground that some of the books of Ginn & Co. were sold cheaper in Indiana than in Garrard county. On the first trial the case was dismissed on demurrer by the circuit court, but reversed by the court of appeals. Messrs. W. I. Williams, L. L. Walker and Col. W. G. Welch represent Garrard county and Judge W. M. Beckner, of Winchester, and Mr. J. W. Alcorn, Ginn & Co.

The grand jury adjourned Tuesday after returning 26 indictments. The fiscal court was indicted for failure to keep the pike and bridges in repair and the city of Stanford for permitting merchants to obstruct the pavements with their wares. The other indictments were for illegally selling whiskey, assault, etc.

THIS is the way the Courier Journal gets things mixed occasionally: "Former Congressman George W. Davidson, of Auburn, was at the Fifth-avenue Hotel, being in Louisville on business. He was twice elected to the lower House of Congress from the Eighth district, and is one of the strongest republicans in that section."

MATRIMONIAL.

Woodson Brock and Miss Aggie Elliott were married at the court house yesterday by Judge James P. Bailey.

A pretty home wedding was that of John S. Baughman to Miss Lena Craig Bruce at the home of Mr. J. E. Bruce, on Danville Avenue, Tuesday evening. The bride, who is a handsome brunette of many accomplishments, wore white organdie over tulle and veil, and her maid of honor, Miss Stella Baitou, was attired in pink silk mull. Mr. Walter U. Walker was the best man. The other attendants were Misses Mary Bruce and Chloe Smith Baughman and Mr. Ernest Warren. Mr. Robert T. Bruce, brother of the bride, gave her away. Misses Nancy Katherine McKinney and Sallie Mills Craig were the flower girls and they scattered pink and white carnations in front of the bridal party. The ceremony was said by Eld. J. W. Hagin under a beautiful arch of flowers. After the wedding the participants and guests repaired to the home of the groom where a delightful reception was tendered. An elegant lunch was served in courses and the color scheme of pink and white was carried out in all the appointments. Mr. and Mrs. Baughman left yesterday for Cincinnati, where they will spend a few days. On their return they will take rooms at the St. Asaph Hotel. The bride is a charming young woman and will prove a helpmeet in all the word implies. The groom is the youngest son of Mr. S. H. Baughman and is a steady young man of fine morals and good business qualifications.
